Film "Finding your Feet" (12A)

"Imelda Staunton, Timothy Spall and co excel in this comedy romance" The Guardian. When "Lady" Sandra Abbott discovers that her husband of 40 years is having an affair with her best friend, she seeks refuge in London with her estranged, older sister Bif. The two could not be more different – Sandra is a fish out of water next to her outspoken, serial dating, free-spirited sibling. But different is just what Sandra needs at the moment, and she reluctantly lets Bif drag her along to a community dance class, where she starts finding her feet. "Comfort food for the young at heart, Richard Loncraine's movie is as cozy as old slippers and as familiar as the British character actors who populate its London locations" NY Times "When it comes to cinema that glorifies the act of seizing the day and taking second chances in one's golden years, actors who hail from the United Kingdom are, in my semi-humble opinion, far more adept at the genre than their Hollywood counterparts." Roger Ebert Duration 1h.51m

Film "The Greatest Showman" (PG)

Inspired by the imagination of P. T. Barnum, The Greatest Showman is an original musical that celebrates the birth of show business & tells of a visionary who rose from nothing to create a spectacle that became a worldwide sensation. "The numbers in "The Greatest Showman" have a dance-pop fire that keeps you hooked."Variety " it's hokey and old-school, but somehow this all-singing, all-dancing spectacle keeps winning over audiences " The Guardian "Being panned by some critics hasn't stopped Hugh Jackman's infectious movie musical The Greatest Showman from becoming the most enduring film hit for a decade." The BBC *"The Greatest Showman is, like the singing, dancing, versatile actor who stars in it, larger than life. And if this is the only screen musical we can get out of the last of his peak performing years, it'll do."*Movie Nation *"The Greatest Showman is the Greatest Movie! What an amazing show! It was a snow day, so we decided to go to the movies. We needed a good "family" show, as everyone from my 10-year-old son to my 93-year-old mother was going. We all LOVED it! Even my son, who is more the Marvel superhero type, kept saying what a good movie it was. My daughter came right home and bought the soundtrack. Not only was it entertaining and fun, but we were amazed at the musical talent of "Wolverine"! The message of how every person is special and should shoot for their dreams is inspiring. Definitely worth seeing on the big screen. A story the whole family will love"*Common Sense Media
