Screening from the Vaudeville Theatre - “The Importance of being Earnest” A ‘brilliantly funny’ and ‘charming’ new production of one of the funniest plays in English, Oscar Wilde’s The Importance of Being Earnest, filmed live at the Vaudeville Theatre in London’s West End, is coming to the big screen. Wilde’s much-loved masterpiece throws love, logic and language into the air to make one of theatre’s most dazzling firework displays. Jack, Algy, Gwendolyn and Cecily discover how unsmooth runs the course of true love, while Lady Bracknell keeps a baleful eye on the mayhem of manners. Michael Fentiman’s ‘absolutely hilarious’ (*****) WhatsOnStage adaptation stars Sophie Thompson and Jeremy Swift, alongside Fiona Button, Pippa Nixon and Stella Gonet. This is the ‘magnificent’ (****) Sunday Times final instalment of Classic Spring’s critically acclaimed Oscar Wilde Season, .***** ‘A MASTERPIECE OF SPARKLING WIT’ WhatsOnStage

Friday 12th 6pm
Tickets £5/£4

Film - “Dumbo” (PG) Struggling circus owner Max Medici enlists a former star and his two children to care for Dumbo, a baby elephant born with oversized ears. When the family discovers that the animal can fly, it soon becomes the main attraction — bringing in huge audiences and revitalizing the run-down circus. The elephant’s magical ability also draws the attention of V.A. Vandevere, an entrepreneur who wants to showcase Dumbo in his latest, larger-than-life entertainment venture. ***** *With its genuinely cute hero and appealing storyline, Dumbo’s exactly right for younger children but not too milk-soppy for anyone over eight. Indispensible. “Empire” ***** “This is a classic family film, with the gorgeous handcrafted animation that’s a hallmark of early Disney films.” Common Sense Media* Tim Burton flaunts his signature visuals in Dumbo while also giving us what we want – a heartwarming tale of learning to be yourself and fly free.

Tuesday 16th 2pm
All Tickets £3 Carers FREE

Film: “Waking Ned Devine” - Comedy. When best friends Jackie O’Shea (Ian Bannen) and Michael O’Sullivan (David Kelly) discover someone in their small Irish village has won the lottery, they immediately set off to see if the winner is in a sharing mood. Deducing that Ned Devine is the lucky man, O’Shea and O’Sullivan pay him a visit, only to find him dead from shock. Since Devine is the only one who can claim the prize, the townsfolk band together to convince the claim inspector that O’Sullivan is really Devine, and split the cash. *****”There’s a wicked glint to his script, too, which always checks its warm-heartedness just short of sentimentality, and keeps a steady laugh count rolling.” Empire Accessible Cabaret seating/no steps/ hearing loop/ tea and biscuits £1/ Free Dial-a Ride Bus available from Bishop’s Castle and Lydbury North call 01588 638350 to book. Supported by the Friends of Bishop’s Castle Community, Care Home and Hospital.

Satellite Screening “André Rieu’s 2019 Maastricht Concert – Shall We Dance” André Rieu’s annual hometown Maastricht concerts attract fans from all corners of the globe. The medieval town square is transformed into a spectacular backdrop for unforgettable concerts filled with humour, fun and emotion for all ages – and, of course, magnificent music. This year André Rieu invites you to put on your dancing shoes for his spectacular 2019 hometown concert from Maastricht: ‘Shall we Dance?’ You can waltz the night away with André Rieu – the majestic waltz has been such an inspiration to André throughout his career that its three-four beat has become, in many ways, the rhythm of his life. Prepare to be swept off your feet by this magical celebration of dance on the big screen in the comfort of your local cinema. Audiences will be treated to behind the scenes content and an exclusive interview with André and as always, some delicious surprises. Shall we dance?
