NT Live - "Julie"

Julie by Polly Stenham after Strindberg. Vanessa Kirby (The Crown, NT Live: A Streetcar Named Desire) and Eric Kofi Abrefa (The Amen Corner) feature in the cast of this brand new production, directed by Carrie Cracknell (NT Live: The Deep Blue Sea) and broadcast live from the National Theatre to cinemas. Wild and newly single, Julie throws a late night party. In the kitchen, Jean and Kristina clean up as the celebration heaves above them. Crossing the threshold, Julie initiates a power game with Jean – which rapidly descends into a savage fight for survival. This new version of August Strindberg's play Miss Julie, written by Polly Stenham, remains shocking and fiercely relevant in its new setting of contemporary London

RSC Live - "The Merry Wives of Windsor"

The only way is Windsor in this new production of Shakespeare's merry comedy. Down on his luck in the suburbs, John Falstaff plans to hustle his way to a comfortable retirement by seducing the wives of two wealthy men. Unknown to him, it's the women of Windsor who really pull the strings, orchestrating Falstaff's comeuppance amidst a theatrical smorgasbord of petty rivalries, jealousies and over-inflated egos. For a fat Englishman, a Welshman and a Frenchman, the only way is Windsor... David Troughton returns to the Company as John Falstaff, following his recent title role in Titus Andronicus and Gloucester in King Lear.

Film - "Whisky Galore" (PG)

A new version of a much loved movie for today's audience. Based on the true story of the SS Politician was an 8000-ton cargo ship sailing for Kingston, Jamaica and New Orleans with a cargo including 28,000 cases of malt whisky. On 5 February 1941, during gale force winds, she ran aground off the Island of Eriskay in the Outer Hebrides. Islanders off the coast of Scotland compete with a stuffy English commander to recover 50,000 cases of whisky from a wrecked cargo vessel. 'What makes the film so pleasurable is the humour and lyricism' The Independent Accessible Cabaret seating/no steps/ hearing loop/ Low lighting throughout film/ tea and biscuits £1 Free Dial-a-ride Bus available from Bishop's Castle and Lydbury North Supported by the Friends of Bishop's Castle Community, Care Home and Hospital.

Film - "Tully" (15)

Comedy Drama * The Guardian Marlo is a New York suburbanite who's about to give birth to her third child. Her husband, Ron, is loving and works hard, but remains clueless about the demands that motherhood puts on his wife. When the baby is born, Marlo's wealthy brother hires a nighttime nanny named Tully to help his sister handle the workload. Hesitant at first, Marlo soon learns to appreciate all that Tully does — forming a special bond with her new, lifesaving friend. "Sharply observed but tenderly realised, Tully brings back the Reitman we knew and loved, represents Cody's finest work since Juno, and reminds us why Theron deserved that 2004 Oscar" Empire

NT Live - "King Lear"

Broadcast live from London's West End, see Ian McKellen's 'extraordinarily moving portrayal' (Independent) of King Lear in cinemas. Ian McKellen reigns supreme in this triumphant production Daily Telegraph. Jonathan Munby directs this contemporary retelling of Shakespeare's tender, violent, moving and shocking play. Nuanced and powerfulThe Times Considered by many to be the greatest tragedy ever written, King Lear sees two ageing fathers – one a King, one his courtier – reject the children who truly love them. Their blindness unleashes a tornado of pitiless ambition and treachery, as family and state are plunged into a violent power struggle with bitter ends. Ian McKellen adds to the roster of his greatest achievements with this extraordinarily moving portrayal of King Lear. Independent Intensely moving The Stage Smart, lucid, superbly detailed Guardian
