Live Music from Marches Community Choir - Trial by Jury (Gilbert & Sullivan)

30 singers plus a chamber orchestra Marches Choir :A group of singers drawn from the community around Bishop's Castle. About 80 strong, ages between mid-thirties and mid-eighties. Started as a result of the choral part of the Millennium celebrations now in their 17th year. We are a Community Choir, open to all older than 16. There are no auditions but members are supported to read music and use other aids (You tube etc) They hold two or three main concerts each year, as well as smaller events in the summer. This is their first concert at SpArC Theatre and we are very excited to welcome them!

Live Music: The Danberrys

“Wonderful,” said Bob Harris when he played them on his BBC Radio 2 show. “The sweetest harmonies you ever heard this side of The Everly Brothers,” wrote top reviewer David Innes in R2 magazine. One of the hottest acts to emerge from the gutsier underbelly of Nashville’s music scene, the soulful pairing of Ben DeBerry and Dorothy Daniel have built a huge fan base on both sides of the Atlantic. On tour here for the first time, in trio format with renowned bass player Geoff Henderson, they are one of the main acts for this year’s Maverick Americana festival and have won various awards and nominations for Best Americana Album. Drawing deep from the traditions of bluegrass, old-time country, blues, and funk/soul, the song-writing and delivery is powered by raw emotion, great vocal harmonies, and dynamic musicianship.
