Film: Spotlight (15)

Best Film and Best Screenplay winner at the 2016 Oscars and Critics Choice awards, Spotlight is the extraordinary true story of how investigative journalists uncovered an abuse scandal and cover-up. It's the summer of 2001 and the Boston Globe has a new editor, Marty Baron (Liev Schreiber), who's curious to know why abusive Catholic Priests have gone unpunished. So he sets the paper's investigative Spotlight team onto the story. Over the course of six months, they painstakingly piece together the horrifying truth about a systematic cover-up of child sex abuse.

Film: Hail Caesar! (12A)

George Clooney stars as a kidnapped movie star in this offbeat period comedy from the Coen brothers. Eddie Mannix (Josh Brodin) is a hard-nosed film studio fixer, who's kept busy hushing up scandals during Hollywood's golden age. Now he faces his biggest challenge to date. Baird Whitlock (George Clooney), wooden star of Capitol Pictures' prestige historical drama Hail Caesar, has been abducted while filming. The kidnapers are a mysterious organisation styling themselves 'The Future', who demand a ransom of $100,000. Oscar-winning No Country for Old Men writer/directors Joel and Ethan Coen return to the Hollywood territory of Barton Fink for this hilarious, lovingly crafted comedy.

Matthew Bourne's: Sleeping Beauty

Matthew Bourne's smash-hit production was captured at the Bristol Hippodrome following the original sell-out UK tour. His haunting new scenario is a Gothic Romance that will delight dance fans of all ages. The story crosses the ages, beginning in 1890 at the christening of the heroine Princess Aurora during the Fin-de-Siecle period when fairies, vampires and decadent opulence fed the gothic imagination.
