Afterwards, a remarkable emotional journey begins for both mother and son as their lives change forever through exposure to the world beyond Room. Based on the award-winning novel by Emma Donoghue and featuring critically-acclaimed performances by Brie Larson and Jacob Tremblay, 'Room' is one of the year's most riveting, emotional, yet ultimately life-affirming, films

Live Theatre Screening: Measure for Measure

In this lesser-known story of secret identities and manipulation, the audience are invited to unravel the layers of intrigue skillfully crafted by a superb cast and the directorial prowess of Dromgoole in his final production for the Globe Theatre. The Duke of Vienna, disgusted by the immorality in his city, announces his withdrawal from public life and leaves his deputy, the puritanical Angelo, in charge. In his zeal for observing the letter of the law, Angelo begins a ruthless programme to stamp out sexual licence, condemning one Claudio to death. Surely Claudio's virginal sister Isabella, a novice nun seeking mercy for her brother, could not awake the lust of this cold, censorious man
