Film: Their Finest (12A)

In 1940, a married woman (Gemma Arterton) and a screenwriter (Sam Claflin) develop a growing attraction while working together on a propaganda film about the evacuation of Allied troops from Dunkirk, France, while the Blitz rages around them. *""You'd need a heart of stone and a funny bone of porridge not to enjoy this sweet-natured and eminently lovable British film"" Guardian Their Finest is too understandably serious to be called a romp, yet it has a buoyancy that lifts you and, in Ms. McCrory, a woman who does, too"" *NY Times"" Lone Scherfig's Blitz-era drama is entertaining and insightful One of the pleasures of the film is the way it both gently mocks and celebrates the British in wartime. At times, the Brits can seem very absurd indeed"" The Independent Starring Gemma Arterton, Bill Nighy, Sam Claflin

FILM: Despicable Me 3 (U)

Gru meets his long-lost charming, cheerful, and more successful twin brother Dru who wants to team up with him for one last criminal heist. Lots of Laughs and Minion Mayhem The mischievous Minions hope that Gru will return to a life of crime after the new boss of the Anti-Villain League fires him. Instead, Gru decides to remain retired and travel to Freedonia to find his long-lost twin brother for the first time. The reunited siblings soon find themselves in an uneasy alliance to take down the elusive Balthazar Bratt, a former 1980s child star who seeks revenge against the world. ”kid-friendly mix of sibling interaction, ’80s humor, and irresistibly silly minion jokes” Common Sense Media

NT Live Screening: Follies

Stephen Sondheim’s legendary musical is staged for the first time at the National Theatre and broadcast live to cinemas. *A stupendous Sondheim revival ...Imelda Staunton is unforgettable in Dominic Cooke’s ingenious revival of a musical that perfectly fuses splendour and poetic sadness...”The Guardian New York, 1971. There’s a party on the stage of the Weismann Theatre. Tomorrow the iconic building will be demolished. Thirty years after their final performance, the Follies girls gather to have a few drinks, sing a few songs and lie about themselves. *“In the National’s triumphant Sondheim revival, the ageing showgirls roar with vitality” The Times Tracie Bennett, Janie Dee and Imelda Staunton play the magnificent Follies in this dazzling new production.

Fri 17th 7.30pm
Tickets Adults £11 U18 £7

LIVE THEATRE: Wuthering Heights (Hotbuckle Theatre)

Emily Jane Brontë’s only novel is widely considered one of the greatest works of fiction ever written. Wuthering Heights is a wild, passionate story of the intense and almost demonic love between Catherine Earnshaw and Heathcliff, a founding adopted by Catherine’s father. After Mr Earnshaw’s death, Heathcliff is bullied and humiliated by Catherine’s brother Hindley and wrongly believing that his love for Catherine is not reciprocated, leaves Wuthering Heights, only to return years later to exact a terrible revenge for his former miseries. With live music, multiple characterisation, humour and inventiveness this story is as enjoyably engaging as should be in the reliable hands of Hotbuckle!
