ROH Live Screening: La Boheme (Puccini)

When Rodolfo, a penniless poet, meets Mimi, a seamstress, they fall instantly in love. But their happiness is threatened when Rodolfo learns that Mimi is gravely ill. Acclaimed director Richard Jones (Boris Godunov, Il trittico) directs a new production of Puccini's La bohème. Irresistible in its witty, passionate blend of comedy and tragedy, the opera focusses on the lives of a group of young artists as they eke out an existence on the bohemian fringes of Paris, the capital of the 19th century.

Afternoon Film: A Dogs Purpose (PG) (Accessible Screening)

Comedy Drama-A devoted dog discovers the meaning of its own existence through the lives of the humans it teaches to laugh and love. Reincarnated as multiple canines over the course of five decades, the lovable pooch develops an unbreakable bond with a kindred spirit named Ethan. As the boy grows older and comes to a crossroad, the dog once again comes back into his life to remind him of his true self.

"One of the most heartfelt movies I've ever seen - A Dog's Purpose is an awesome movie about a dog's love for their human..." IMDB

RSC Live Screening: Coriolanus

A full-throttle war play that revels in the sweat of the battlefield, Coriolanus transports us back to the emergence of the republic of Rome. Caius Martius Coriolanus is a fearless soldier but a reluctant leader. His ambitious mother attempts to carve him a path to political power, but he struggles to change his nature and do what is required to achieve greatness. In this new city state struggling to find its feet, where the gap between rich and poor is widening every day, Coriolanus must decide who he really is and where his allegiances lie.

LIVE THEATRE: Uchenna Dance-The Head Wrap Diaries

You are in for a real treat! Three fierce, clever and witty female characters take us through stories of community, heritage womanhood and friendship. This interactive dance theatre production celebrates versatility and diversity dealing with issues of femininity, beauty, culture and most importantly; hair. Vicki Igbokwe | Uchenna Dance's choreography blends club style House, Waacking and Vogue fused with African and Contemporary dance. The Head Wrap Diaries gives you front row seats to a journey from childhood to the present day. Hair – worn long, worn short, worn wavy or in braids – is the subject of The Head Wrap Diaries, a funny and uplifting dance theatre performance. It's an interactive show set in a hair salon about people, and their ongoing relationship with hair. Mixing dance, theatre and storytelling with a good dose of humour, the performance venue is transformed into a Be-U-Tiful hair salon, with wig stands and chairs set around a performing space Audience members are welcomed by stylists Linda and Riyah who will take you on a hair journey that will have you laughing out loud, thinking about your own (and everyone else's!) hair while you learn a thing or two about afro-hair, straight from the hairdresser's chair. This exciting dance experience features a sizzling soundtrack of sounds from 90s R'n'B to traditional Ghanaian pop music.

Film: Moonlight (15)

*"You won't find a more sensitively rendered, evocative, or surprising coming-of-age film than Barry Jenkins's Moonlight, now nominated for eight Oscars. Jenkins takes characters who are usually portrayed on screen as crude stock types – the drug dealer, the junkie mother, the mixed-up kid – and gives them complexity and humanity." Independent A look at three defining chapters in the life of Chiron, a young black man growing up in Miami. His epic journey to manhood is guided by the kindness, support and love of the community that helps raise him. Multi award winning including Golden globe and Oscar winner for best Picture. Written and directed by Barry Jenkins, based on Tarell Alvin McCraney's unpublished semi-autobiographical play In Moonlight Black Boys Look Blue Won Golden globe and Oscar for best Picture.

LIVE THEATRE: Distant Voices presents: Five a Day- Moments of Love & Death.

Distant Voice brings a piece of powerful theatre to SpArC with a chance for discussion afterwards. 5 A DAY is a play about our search for 'a good death,' an end without pain, loneliness or fear. Who has the so called 'right to die'? Where will it start, who will it end with? Questioning, revealing, heart breaking, it's our story, it will be your story It is human nature to crave control where none seems available. But do we really know anything about euthanasia? Do we see that choice at the end as easy, a gentle fading out? Or are we oblivious to the real story? Preferring the cinematic view, keenly placed in our heads by the likes of DIGNITAS and DIGNITY IN DYING

ROH, Royal Ballet Live Screening: Alice in Wonderland

The Royal Ballet at its best, bringing together world-class dance with enchanting family entertainment. . Bob Crowley's wildly imaginative, eye-popping designs draw on everything from puppetry to projections to make Wonderland wonderfully real. Alice encounters a cast of extraordinary and instantly recognizable characters, from the highly strung Queen of Hearts – who performs a hilarious send-up of The Sleeping Beauty's famous Rose Adage – to a playing-card corps de ballet, a sinuous caterpillar and a tap-dancing Mad Hatter. But the ballet does not avoid the darker undercurrents of Lewis Carroll's story: a nightmarish kitchen, an eerily disembodied Cheshire Cat and the unhinged tea party are all here in vivid detail.
