Film: Sing Street (12A)

SING STREET takes us back to 1980s Dublin seen through the eyes of a 14-year-old boy named Conor (Ferdia Walsh-Peelo) who is looking for a break from a home strained by his parents' relationship and money troubles, while trying to adjust to his new inner-city public school where the kids are rough and the teachers are rougher. He finds a glimmer of hope in the mysterious, über-cool and beautiful Raphina (Lucy Boynton) and with the aim of winning her heart he invites her to star in his band's music videos. There's only one problem: he's not part of a band...yet. She agrees, and now Conor must deliver he forms a band with a few lads, and the group pours their heart into writing lyrics and shooting videos. Inspired by writer/director John Carney's life and love for music, SING STREET shows us a world where music has the power to take us away from the turmoil of everyday life and transform us into something greater.

Thurs 15th 7pm
Tickets £12/£8

Turandot on Sydney Harbour

After last year's hugely successful Aida on Sydney Harbour, Handa Opera return with their most exciting opera yet: Turandot. When the heroic high notes of 'Nessun Dorma' ring out, your soul stirs. It's impossible to resist – the climax of an exotic adventure, captured perfectly in music.

Thursday 22nd 7pm
Tickets £11/£7

NTLIVE: The Threepenny Opera

Mack the Knife is back in town. A darkly comic new take on Brecht and Weill's raucous musical broadcast live from the stage of the National Theatre. London scrubs up for the coronation. The thieves are on the make, the whores on the pull, the police cutting deals to keep it all out of sight. Mr and Mrs Peachum are looking forward to a bumper day in the beggary business, but their daughter didn't come home last night and it's all about to kick off...

Thursday 28th 7pm
Tickets £12/£8

RSC LIVE: Cymbeline

Cymbeline is a ruler of a divided Britain. When Innogen, the only living heir, marries her sweetheart in secret, an enraged Cymbeline banishes him. But a powerful figure behind the throne is plotting to seize power and murder them both. Innogen embarks on a dangerous journey that will reunite Cymbeline with a lost heir and reconcile the young lovers.

Friday 30th 7pm
Tickets £5/£4
